

2020-2021 COMMUNITY-WIDE COURSE

"JUDAISM FOR CONVERSION CANDIDATES"

An open and engaging 36-week course for anyone considering Conversion to Judaism. Meets Thursday's 7:00-9:00 pm.

VIRTUAL CLASSES BEGIN AUGUST 20TH

ORIENTATION - August 13th- 7:00-9:00pm

*(In person sessions may Rotate among Synagogues & Jewish Community Campus later in the year)

- An opportunity to meet and study together and discover what it means to live Jewishly
- A comfortable forum to learn about Jewish holidays, home celebrations, life-cycle observances, rituals and Jewish prayer, Israel, Torah, Judaism's view of God and information about the various Jewish movements. Course includes a 30-minute Hebrew component each week
- Create Jewish memories by taking part in a Shabbat experience and participating in other holiday celebrations and observances
- Study with Reform, Conservative, Orthodox and Non-denominational Rabbis
- Each student will select a Rabbinic Sponsor no later than February 1st

Course fee is $250 - including textbooks
For additional information visit kcrabbi.org.
To Register, contact afprogram@aol.com 913-327-4622

